

Department of Veterans Affairs

§ 1.943

justify retention of the claim for periodic review and action, and:

(1) The applicable statute of limitations has been tolled or started running again, or

(2) Future collection can be affected by offset, notwithstanding the statute of limitations, with due regard to the 10 year limitation prescribed by 31 U.S.C. 3716(c)(1), or

(3) The debtor agrees to pay interest on the amount of the debt on which collection action has been suspended temporarily, and such temporary suspension is likely to enhance the debtor's ability to pay the debt in full, with interest, at a later time.

(c) Collection action may also be suspended, in accordance with §§1.911, 1.912, and 1.912a, pending agency action on requests for administrative review or waiver.

§ 1.942 Termination of collection activity.

Termination of collection activity involves a final determination. Collection activity may be terminated on cases previously suspended. The Department of Veterans Affairs may terminate collection activity and consider closing the agency file on a claim which meets any one of the following standards:

(a) Inability to collect any substantial amount. Collection action may be terminated on a claim when it becomes clear that VA cannot collect or enforce collection of any significant amount from the debtor, having due regard for the judicial remedies available to the agency, the debtor's future financial prospects, and the exemptions available to the debtor under State and Federal law. In determining the debtor's inability to pay, the following factors, among others, shall be considered: Age and health of the debtor, present and potential income, inheritance prospects, the possibility that assets have been concealed or improperly transferred by the debtor, the availability of assets or income which may be realized by means of enforced collection proceedings.

(b) Inability to locate debtor. The debtor cannot be located, no security remains to be liquidated, the applicable statute of limitations has run, and the prospects of collecting by offset are too remote.

(c) Death of debtor. The debtor is determined to be deceased and the Government has no prospect of collection from his/her estate.

(d) Cost will exceed recovery. The cost of further collection effort is likely to exceed the amount recoverable.

(e) Claim legally without merit. Collection action should be terminated on a claim whenever it is determined that the claim is legally without merit.

(f) Claim cannot be substantiated by evidence. VA will terminate collection action on once asserted claims because of lack of evidence or unavailability of witnesses only in cases where efforts to induce voluntary payment are unsuccessful.

[32 FR 2615, Feb. 8, 1967, as amended at 52 FR 42111, Nov. 3, 1987]

§ 1.943 Transfer of claims.

When VA has doubt as to whether collection action should be suspended or terminated on a claim, it may refer the claim to the GAO for advice. When a significant enforcement policy is involved in reducing a statutory penalty or forfeiture to judgment, or recovery of a judgment is a prerequisite to the imposition of administrative sanctions, such as the suspension or revocation of a license or the privilege of participating in a government sponsored program, VA may refer such a claim for litigation even though termination of collection activity might otherwise be given consideration. Claims on which VA holds a judgment by assignment or otherwise shall be referred to the Department of Justice for further actions if renewal of the judgment lien or enforced collection proceedings are justified, except where VA has authority for handling its own litigation.
